

Scuba Diving

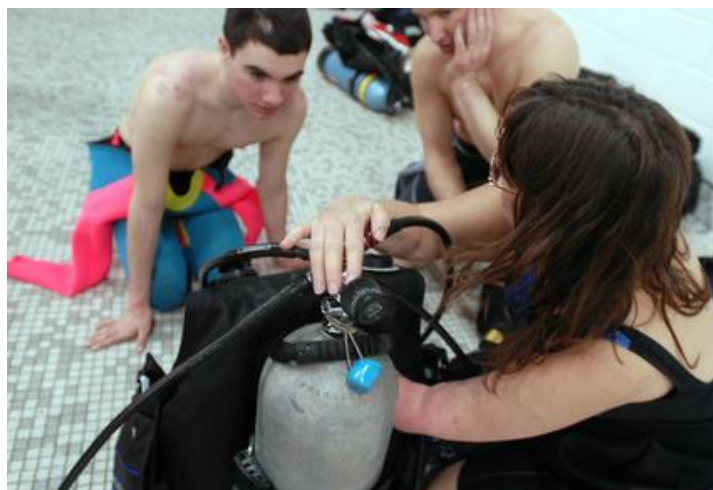

Mar 31, 2010 @ 01:13 PM

SEASPAR members participate in scuba lessons held at Downers Grove South pool Tuesday March 30, 2010. The Diveheart organization is hosting a fundraiser April 18 to help provide education scuba diving and snorkeling experiences to children, adults or veterans with disabilities.

Erica Benson

snapshots.mysuburbanlife.com/971675 Staff photo by Erica Benson SEASPAR volunteer Andy Ferraro of Forest Park encourages SEASPAR member Greg Wilson of Western Springs to get in the water during scuba lessons held at Downers Grove South pool Tuesday March 30, 2010. The Diveheart organization is hosting a fundraiser April 18 to help provide education scuba diving and snorkeling experiences to children, adults or veterans with disabilities.

Erica Benson

snapshots.mysuburbanlife.com/971675 Staff photo by Erica Benson SEASPAR member Jack Duffy of Western Springs listens while volunteers (left) Dan Norris of Naperville and Jerrie Turner of Lisle explain the equipment during scuba lessons held at Downers Grove South pool Tuesday March 30, 2010. The Diveheart organization is hosting a fundraiser April 18 to help provide education scuba diving and snorkeling experiences to children, adults or veterans with disabilities.

Erica Benson

snapshots.mysuburbanlife.com/971675 Staff photo by Erica Benson SEASPAR member Jack Duffy of Western Springs (right) and volunteer Jerrie Turner of Lisle go over the signals including "watch" during scuba lessons held at Downers Grove South pool Tuesday March 30, 2010. The Diveheart organization is hosting a fundraiser April 18 to help provide education scuba diving and snorkeling experiences to children, adults or veterans with disabilities